Help someone improve their reading skills and learn more about Canada!

The Westcoast Reader is a monthly newspaper for adults learning to read English. We write current news and information articles for beginning readers. Each issue is accompanied by Teachers' Notes with ready-to-use exercises and group learning activities based on the articles in the paper.

The following groups can receive The Westcoast Reader free:

- Community Adult Literacy Programs (CALP)
- ESL, EAL and ABE programs funded by the BC Ministry of Advanced Education, Skills & Training
- Literacy Outreach Coordinators (LOC)
- Public libraries

All other groups pay a small fee to receive this valuable learning resource.
