Father of Haida manga

Story adapted from The Vancouver Sun

Level 2
March 2010

Michael Nicoll Yahgulanaas is a Haida artist. He was born in Prince Rupert, B.C. in 1954. But Michael was raised in Haida Gwaii. The old name for Haida Gwaii is Queen Charlotte Islands.

Why did Michael start manga?

One day, some Japanese students visited Haida Gwaii, B.C.

They told Michael that his art looked like Japanese comic books.

These books are called “manga”.

Soon after, Michael started to retell old stories.

He mixes traditional Haida art and new Japanese animation.

Michael’s books have won many awards.

Michael does other art, too.
He works with metal and wood.
His exhibits are in Canada and all over the world.

Exercise:

How do the words sound?

[-s] and [-es] have different sounds at the end of a word. For example:

S sounds like a snake: (s-s-s) in the word “hat ... hats”.

S sounds like a bee: (z-z-z) in the word “come ... comes”.

S sounds like [iz] after the words ending with these sounds:

- | | |
|------------------------|----------------------|
| [s] dress ... dresses | [z] rose roses |
| [ch] peach ... peaches | [sh] wash ... washes |

Put the words in the word bank under the same “end” sounds.

- | | | | | | |
|---------|-------|--------|---------|---------|---------|
| leads | helps | causes | sneezes | lessons | games |
| dishes | nuts | fruits | nurses | books | players |
| parents | teams | washes | adults | lunches | years |
