

THE WCR LEARNING COMMUNITY

This project is made possible through funding from the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia.

Help is arriving. Shelter kits are loaded onto trucks.
PHOTO: DFID--UK DEPT FOR INTERNATIONAL DEV/ CC, FLICKR

one survivor. “People are just scavenging in the streets.”

Help is coming

The United Nations and many countries are sending money and help.

Canada is sending the Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART).

Canadians are donating money to help.

Adapted from The Vancouver Sun

Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines

What is it like after the typhoon?

The cities have little food and water.

People are hungry and thirsty.

People are searching for food and water.

They have no shelter.

Doctors are desperate for medicines.

Dead bodies lie in the streets.

It is getting worse by the day.

“There is no water, no food,” said

Links

Go to The Westcoast Reader website for links to more information and videos.

www.thewestcoastreader.com

Answer Key (exercise on page 2)

The cities have little food and water.

People are hungry and thirsty.

People are searching for food and water.

They have no shelter.

Doctors are desperate for medicines.

(Continued on page 2...)

(...Continued from page 2)

Unscramble the letters and write the words on the lines.
Answer key on page 1.

1. The cities have little food and _____ .

rtaew

2. People are _____ and thirsty.

yhgrun

3. People are _____ for food and water.

gincesai

4. They have no _____.

ertselh

5. Doctors are desperate for _____.

cineedmsi