
Get out in the community

What can you do with your family during spring break? Here are some ideas.

Visit a museum

Some museums have free entry for children or families during spring break. They might also have special activities for young children.

Go to the library

Many public libraries have free programs for children or families during spring break. Visit your local library to learn what's happening in March.

Watch a movie

Watching movies is a great way to practice your English listening skills. Some local theatres have free movies.

Most Cineplex theatres have special discounts during spring break. Movie tickets are only $3.

Some museums have free activities for families during spring break.

Visit your local library to learn what's happening in March.

Adapted from vancouverbestplaces.com • Photos: Flickr.com/MrTinDC, Pixabay/Victoria Borodina