
Virtual Canada Day

Many regular Canada Day celebrations are cancelled.
They are cancelled because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

This year, you can celebrate Canada Day online.

This year, there are new ways to celebrate Canada Day.

In Victoria, the city will hold neighbourhood gatherings. The gatherings will be small so people can practise social distancing.

In Trail, the city will have red lights on the Victoria Street Bridge. The lights will be red to honour Canada Day.

The city of Surrey will livestream festivities on Facebook and YouTube.

Did you know?

- The Heritage Ministry manages Canada Day events.
- You can join Canada Day shows on CBC and Radio-Canada.
- You can also enjoy shows on Canadian Heritage's social media sites.
- Many of the activities on the social media sites will be fun for families.

Adapted from CBC News • Photo: Government of Canada
