
“Please take my tenant!!!”

Jake Corr is a landlord. He rented a room in his house to Dustin.

Jake and his wife are having twins. They need more space.

They asked Dustin to move out so they could have extra space.

Jake posted an ad

Jake and Dustin live in Victoria. There are not many places to rent in Victoria.

Jake was worried. Dustin was a good tenant. He wanted Dustin to find a new place to live.

Jake posted an ad on UsedVictoria. The ad said “Please take my tenant!!!”

The ad helped Dustin

Jake wrote many nice things about Dustin. He said Dustin was “clean, and respectful.” Jake hoped his ad would help Dustin find a new place to live.

“He’s actually a really nice and cool guy,” said Jake. He offered to pay for Dustin’s first month’s rent and his damage deposit.

Dustin found a new place to live because of Jake’s help.

Hello!!!

PETS | No

SMOKING | No

I have a great tenant available immediately...

My wife is pregnant with twins and we need the extra space.

Please take him...

Single male, his name is Dustin...

He rented our spare bedroom for 6 months, then took over small suite during turnover.

Dustin was clean, and respectful while in our space, and just as good while occupying the suite for two years.

3 months until he has to move out...
Or tomorrow (if that works for you)

I'll give you damage + first months rent...

If we were buying a new house, we'd bring him with us...
We're not though, and we need the space for our family...

PLEASE take out tenant
