
Black Shirt Day

Write the missing word

Listen closely to the audio recording of “Black Shirt Day.” Write in the missing words you hear.

On January 15, _____ and teachers in BC wore black shirts to school.

They wore black shirts to raise awareness about _____.

Why January 15?

January 15 was Martin Luther King Jr.’s birthday. Martin Luther King Jr. fought for the rights of _____ in the 1950s and 1960s. He raised awareness about racism against Black people.

A petition for Black Shirt Day

Kamika Williams is a member of the Anti-Racism Coalition of Vancouver. She went to school in _____.

Williams helped start a _____ to make Black Shirt Day mandatory for all schools across BC. She wants students to learn more about Black _____.

“There’s a lot of Black people in Canada who aren’t represented in the educational system,” she said. “You go to _____ and none of the teachers and the principals look like you and none of the stories they talk about in history reflect anyone who looks like you. Although you’ve been here for _____ of years.”

Williams hopes that Black Shirt Day will be official by 2022.

Black Shirt Day

Answers

Write the missing word

On January 15, students and teachers in BC wore black shirts to school.

They wore black shirts to raise awareness about racism.

Why January 15?

January 15 was Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday. Martin Luther King Jr. fought for the rights of African Americans in the 1950s and 1960s. He raised awareness about racism against Black people.

A petition for Black Shirt Day

Kamika Williams is a member of the Anti-Racism Coalition of Vancouver. She went to school in BC.

Williams helped start a petition to make Black Shirt Day mandatory for all schools across BC. She wants students to learn more about Black history.

“There’s a lot of Black people in Canada who aren’t represented in the educational system,” she said. “You go to school and none of the teachers and the principals look like you and none of the stories they talk about in history reflect anyone who looks like you. Although you’ve been here for hundreds of years.”

Williams hopes that Black Shirt Day will be official by 2022.