
George Chow remembered

Find the answer

Circle the correct number or word to complete each sentence below.

1. Remembrance Day reminds us of those who (served / competed) for Canada.
2. Chinese Canadians' contribution to Canada's war efforts helped them gain the right to (work / vote) in 1947.
3. Chow was one of about (600 / 500) Chinese Canadians who served in the Second World War.
4. Chow did not want to be a (doctor / farmer) like his father. When he was 18, he volunteered to serve in the (First / Second) World War.
5. Chow trained in both (Montreal / Vancouver) and (Windsor / Colchester).

Finding words

Find words that start with the following letters in the story.

C _____

Ch _____

George Chow remembered

Fill in the blanks

Read the story and fill in the blanks to complete the sentences.
Or, listen to Part 3 audio for this story and fill in the blanks.

Chow _____ Mabel Rose in _____. The couple married during the _____. They had _____ children. Chow and his family came to _____ after the war. He retired from the army in _____.

Chow's _____ says he spent his retirement going to _____ to speak with children about _____ Day.

"There is no _____ in war," Pat Wilson remembers her _____ saying in a speech.

In _____, Chow received the Normandy Campaign 1944 _____ at a Chinese Canadian Military _____ dinner.

Chow died on _____ 6, 2020. He died the day after he celebrated his _____ th birthday.

George Chow remembered

What would you do? 📖

Would you volunteer to serve in an army to join a war? Why or why not?

George Chow remembered

Answers

Find the answer

1. Remembrance Day reminds us of those who (served / competed) for Canada.
2. Chinese Canadians' contribution to Canada's war efforts helped them gain the right to (work / vote) in 1947.
3. Chow was one of about (600 / 500) Chinese Canadians who served in the Second World War.
4. Chow did not want to be a (doctor / farmer) like his father. When he was 18, he volunteered to serve in the (First / Second) World War.
5. Chow trained in both (Montreal / Vancouver) and (Windsor / Colchester).

Finding words

C: Canada, Canadian(s), contribution, Colchester, crew, couple, came, campaign, celebrated
CH: Chow, Chinese, children

Fill in the blanks

Chow met Mabel Rose in England. The couple were married during the war. They had two children. Chow and his family came to Canada after the war. He retired from the army in 1963.

Chow's daughter says he spent his retirement going to schools to speak with children about Remembrance Day.

"There is no glory in war," Pat Wilson remembers her father saying in a speech.

In 2006, Chow received the Normandy Campaign 1944 Medal at a Chinese Canadian Military Museum dinner.

Chow died on November 6, 2020. He died the day after he celebrated his 99th birthday.