Literacy Month Contest

In B.C., we celebrate Literacy Month. Literacy is important for everyone.

This year's theme is "Literacy: The Ripple Effect." Literacy skills can improve life at home, at work and in the community, creating a positive ripple effect.

Literacy is important for taking medicine correctly.

Get Involved!

Enter the Literacy Month Contest

1. Complete the following sentence by providing one or more examples: "For me, the ripple effect of literacy is..."

   Examples:

   - I can read recipes and cook new things.
   - I can follow the instructions on my medicine bottle and take the right amount.
   - I can get a better job by having digital literacy skills.
   - I can join local events by reading community websites.

2. Email your entry to contest@decoda.ca.

3. Enter before midnight on September 30.

Literacy skills are needed to follow recipes.

Photos: iStock/Milko, iStock/miodrag ignjatovic